Married To A Boss: BWWM Billionaire Romance Thelma L. Howell

When I was little I grew up with my best friend beside of me. We didn't care about money or social status; we just cared about having fun. As we grew older, my best friend got sent away to private school and my life turned black. I had never realized, but he was the only reason my life had colour and I could barely wait for school to be over and for him to come back.

When school had finally finished and we had both gotten into local colleges, I had honestly thought that things would get better. I thought that I would be able to tackle anything with my best friend by my side, but his dad had other ideas. His dad didn't think I was good enough for his son and he made sure that I'd never get the happily ever after, which I had been counting on.

He couldn't put a stop to our bond though and, as we both realized that we could never be with each other, we let ourselves fall into each other, but then we are forced apart and I find myself wondering, whether my secret might be the only thing, which will bring him back to me.
