If you want to study Biblical prophecy about the signs of the end time and make any sense of it, then this book is for you. In "The warning bells - What in the world is happening?" Not only will you understand the truth about the revelations, visions and prophecies of the preceding signs of the END-TIME to watch for, you will also be able to make informed decisions and be prepared when you see these things taking place. We are already living in extraordinary times. As you read through, you will find out series of events and global happenings (past and present) that points to the fulfillment of some or part of those prophecies. We are in the "End Times". Troublesome times, but as Jesus said in John 14: 1 "Let not your hearts be troubled, believe in me".
