“You know it’s to the death, I hope it's obvious to ni**as...”

Aiden’s sickness has opened a window of opportunity for some ugly truths to be revealed. With both sides of his surviving family forced to give blood to save him, those truths threaten the bonds of everyone involved. Can those secrets be forgiven or overlooked? Or will they be enough to break the bonds and relationships of those involved.

Can Kee continue to fight for Ash like she’s always done, or is she finally tired of being sick and tired? She’s torn because giving up on Ash has a lot of consequences which she is not sure that she’s ready to deal with. If she puts her foot down, is she capable of accepting all that she could possibly lose? Or will it prove to be too much for her?

Cris thinks that she has finally found the one, but unfortunately, his past has managed to threaten Cris’ happily ever after. This sets the stage for some major issues in both of their lives. Will Cris care enough to tough it out, or will she get fed up, move on, and let it go. Her heart is telling her to stay and fight, but her mind is begging her to walk away before she gets deeper into the web.

There's so much drama going on in all of their lives, and it’s affecting each of them differently. Can they weather the storm, or will they get wiped out? These three friends are stuck trying to find their way, and second guessing their hearts. Hopefully, they will figure it all out and come out of it with their hearts and minds in tack.
