Imagine, you are applying for a job and there's another candidate with the same qualifications and experience gunning for that same position. A common mistake most job seekers make is believing that it's all about their resume. Nothing can be further from the truth. While a resume is very important, it's not the be-all-end-all when it comes to getting that dream job offer.

Everything else being equal, employers are making decisions based on what they SEE, HEAR and FEEL. Here are a few things they are looking for:

- Do they FEEL a sense of connection and rapport?
- Do they think the candidate would fit in with the company culture?
- Do the candidate's responses align with what they state in their resume?
- Does the candidate communicate and present themselves well?

These decisions are made based on an interaction that lasts 30 minutes or so.

There's much more to nailing that job interview than just your qualifications on paper, to getting the job you crave and the salary you deserve. This book will teach you to be the candidate YOU would hire.
