Amber Sahni, equestrian enthusiast and heiress, kissed her sterling life in New York goodbye. Only to shockingly end up in the Clandestine Service of the infamous Directorate of National Security in the mosaic of chaos that is Delhi.

But just as her life starts to pick up in her mother country, an almost mythological terror cell surfaces with a deadly agenda. And so, begins the journey that plunges Amber into unadulterated danger, unavoidable language barriers and the job of babysitting a pre-teen at the same time as trying to stop an assassination, only to realize that Plan B of the terror cell might be deadlier than Plan A.

Blessing In Disguise will take you through a fast-paced trek across three essential locales as Amber struggles with patriotism and painful extremists, only ultimately to discover what it means to go at length for one's country.

But hey, is this life any less than sterling?
