Should my child take the SAT or ACT? What types of financial aid are available? What is the FAFSA? When should we schedule campus tours? If you are a parent, and don't know or remember the answer to these questions, then this is the one book you should read. This guide for parents presents what you need to help your child successfully complete the college application process, including: choosing schools, understanding financial aid, information for international students, completing applications, post-decision activities, and standardized tests. Each chapter includes a suggested timeline to complete activities and FAQs, ensuring you are actively involved and have an organized plan of action for your child's senior year of high school.
