Without Justice Carsen Taite

Cade Kelly's life revolved around her legal career until the day she testified against the largest crime family in Chicago. Now in witness protection, she's working hard to adjust to a life devoid of the things she used to be passionate about. When she meets the smart and beautiful Emily Sinclair, Cade feels hopeful about her new life, but she learns no matter who she pretends to be, she can't deny the pull of her past.

Emily Sinclair is settling into her role as district attorney and she's ready to find a love interest to share in her success. Cade Kelly captivates her from the moment they meet, but she discovers that despite their undeniable attraction, Cade will challenge her at every turn. What will happen when Emily learns Cade isn't who she thought she was, and worse, when they wind up on opposite sides in Emily's first big case?
