Black's Voyage: Book 1 in the Establishment Series David L Buschhorn

Most of humanity is gone. Cars are gone. Family is gone. Friends are gone. Electricity is gone. Could you make it? Could you survive? What would you do? Where would you start? Jed Black was a modern guy, with modern problems when the world fell in on itself. One month he was worried about car payments and making his mortgage and wondering if his 401k was performing well enough. The next month, all of that seemed confusingly pointless. Food, water, fire and shelter. Suddenly, all of his worries and problems are basic and 100% understandable. Except for women. They are still a completely baffling mystery. It's good to know some things never change.
