Liam and Siobhán Ó Maoilmhín are a young married couple recently returned to Ireland after spending a few years working in the United States. They both manage to get good jobs and they buy a house in a nice estate. All is well until Learaí and Deborah Ó Dúill move in next door and then, little by little, the Ó Maoilmhín's lives are turned upside down by their new neighbours. This novel for adult learners is written in relatively simple Irish and includes a glossary of difficult words. It won the first prize in the fiction for learners category in the Oireachtas Literary Competitions 2007.
