How to Write a Book A.I. ABANA

It is without apology that I intend to spill out the secrets of book writing other authors would not tell you... within the pages of this book are revealed the secrets of competent writing.

From writing books, to reports, to white-papers to articles, even product reviews, you would find the methods and techniques discussed in this book relevant, here's a sample of the introduction.

INTRODUCTION

So you set out to write a book, you draw out your pen and pan out some writing pad or you launch your favorite word processor program all set to write. Then it hits you... -BLANK- ...no words, no ideas and not the slightest clue what to write about, that, or how exactly to start writing whatever it is you have got in mind.

Despair not, you are one in a sea of would-be writers facing a similar bottleneck of a challenge, whether you call it “writers block” or some other name the problem(s) all fall under the same umbrella (for which this book was written) – How To Write A Book. Within the pages of this book you will find gems and invaluable facts that would prove useful to your writing efforts, whether you are working to write blog posts, product reviews, e-books or physical books, you do well to study every detail outlined in this book.

There is an art to writing and make no mistake as you begin your journey into the world of competent writing your creativity and imagination would be tasked. This however, does not mean that no methodology exists to surmount the problem of writing your heart out in a plausible and elegant way, there is style to writing which can differ from person to person and there is or are a set of guidelines which if you adhere to will aid and abate your ability to churn out volumes of thoughtful words that would otherwise have been more difficult or impossible to put to pen.

I intend to unveil one such methodology through the chapters of this book in the hopes that you would find the “beginning of the thread” when it comes to what things to write about and how to go about writing them. I realize that some people reading this could be zealous and eager to churn out the next best seller, whatever your ambitions or inclinations are about writing, you would do well to heed the directives and guidelines written in this book.

So do you want to find out what formula I have used to churn out book after book? Do you want to know what definite things go into writing a decent, relevant, life enriching and immensely valuable book? Then read this wonderful, treasure piece of a book from here on out to the last chapter because every word was written for you.
