Nothing to hide? Nothing to fear!: A One Act Farce Harry Jordan

A one act stage play – a modern and topical farce suitable for adaptation and improvisation. X and Y – two British intelligence spooks – are on the frontline of the “War on Terror”. They carry the lonesome burden of ensuring politicians and journalists alike – oh, and of course the entire British population – are kept under mass electronic surveillance “for the better good”. But their carefully calculated plans for a “protective state” start to go awry when they drag in a journalist for questioning ...
