Blessed Are The Peacemakers: A Shattered Nation Novella Jeffrey Brooks

The war is over. Now the struggle for peace begins. In Shattered Nation, the Confederacy won the battle for Atlanta, Lincoln lost his bid for reelection, and the Union sued for peace. In Blessed are the Peacemakers, John C. Breckinridge will journey to Canada to take part in a conference intended to bring the war to an end. Can the two rival sides overcome differences over slavery, the border states, and other issues? Can Breckinridge contend with divisions among the Confederate delegates? Is the quest for peace doomed from the beginning?
