Habeas Britanniam: British Liberty & the Legal Case against the EU Dominic Bardill

From the glorious Charter of Liberties that paved the way to granting your very freedom, through to the laws of the European Union that threaten it today; from the Magna Carta and its demands for trial by jury, through to the European Arrest Warrant's erosion of Habeas Corpus; from the arbitrary detention of British Subjects in Greek jails, to the imprisonment of people using pounds and ounces, 'Habeas Britanniam' makes a powerful case for leaving the European Union. This invaluable book will show you the truth about your uniquely British freedoms from the perspective of liberty and the law; why your liberties are under threat and what you can do about it. The one thing that matters most to the individual are the laws that govern his life, and 'Habeas Britanniam' gives compelling arguments that show just how much you have lost, as well as how much you have to regain.
