Charlie does not want to give up his Binky! It makes him feel warm and cozy and he doesn't want to do without it. But Mommy doesn't like Charlie's Binky. It is too hard for her to understand him when he talks with it in his mouth, it is always getting lost, and it makes eating quite a challenge. Charlie's Mom suggests they make a Binky box to keep the Binky in during the day. Even though it feels strange at first, Charlie learns to do without his Binky and declares he is a big boy now!
