From baby showers to first birthday parties, this book has over 301 ideas and etiquette rules for how to word your baby announcements, baby showers, gender reveal parties and first birthday parties. Whether you print your own, send electronic invitations or use a traditional flat printer or engraver, this book will guide you through the rules of etiquette and formatting, from classic "ladies only" baby showers to co-ed gender reveal backyard barbeques, know what to say and when to gracefully add registry information.

Need to know how to word birth announcements for triplets? See chapter three (No pun intended!) or combine with the traditional and creative baby announcement wordings and verses from chapters one and two. Are your first born or parents begging to be included? See chapter four and five for baby announcements issued by siblings and grandparents. We also have oodles of adoption announcement wordings and special adoption shower invitations, too.

Part II includes Baby shower wordings, including co-ed and couples shower ideas, cute "Meet the Baby" invitations and wordings and verses for baptism invitations and christening invitations. This is a great "Baby's First Year" reference book for new parents, grandparents, party planners and stationers alike.

Happy planning!
