A Forbidden Love Filled With Twists And Turns

Katie is a University professor in this romantic short story who is ready to give up on love when she breaks up with her long-term boyfriend. She's ready to sit back and try out the single life for a while, but her friends don't quite agree. They take her out for a night on the town to get over old what's-his-name. Katie doesn't see the appeal in this, at least, not until she sees the appeal in the younger guy sitting across from her in the bar. She acts on impulse, getting a great night, but not a lot of sleep, out of it. Things hit a bump when Katie realizes that her hook-up from the weekend before is her new exchange student. Katie needs to figure out if it's right to be with her student, whether or not her student is with her for all of the right reasons, or could there be more to her college-aged boy toy than meets the eye?
