Emily Mills lives a life of opulence and luxury in Los Angeles but can't shake the feeling that there is something more out there for her. It isn't the picture perfect life her social circles expect and she knows something is missing. Unwilling to let happiness be a distant wish, she boards a plane to chase her dreams of becoming a lawyer in New York City. It doesn't take long for her past to reappear with her former best friend from college, Jake Bradford. Knowing the feelings she's held for Jake all these years, she still tries to convince herself that she isn't worthy of any sort of love from him. Conceding to a fraction of her desire, Emily strikes a deal with Jake to become steamy friends with benefits. Soon her passionate bond with him turns out to be way more intense than she expects and she finds herself wishing her emotional scars didn't rear their ugly head and destroy everything she's worked for.

Can Emily forgive herself and those who have hurt her in the past to become the person she knows she can be? Or will the roadblocks in front of her cause her to make the decision to run like she's been doing most of her life? Book 1 of this thrilling new 3-book series will leave you panting for more and cheering for second chances.
