Done is Done, Part Three of A Year and a Day Lisa Courtney

Done is Done continues and concludes the story of Thomas Lear, Court Singer to the Queen of Faerie. Once the many repercussions of the Mischief have been dealt with, life in Elvenhome attempts to return to normal. But there are stormy times ahead: the relationship between Thomas and his Queen explodes, an act born from wistful, unrequited love triggers a series of harsh lessons, and Thomas' Year and a Day with Callie and the Folk slowly comes to an end. Done is done: Thomas must return to his former life in Los Angeles, and Callie must remain in her life among the Folk. Done is done: she will remember, and he will not. Done is done. And what happens next, you'll have to read to find out.
