How I Make $1,000 Per Month Running a Minecraft Server: Strategies for Running a Successful Server Tim Vitale

Hi, I'm Tim. I'm not a professional writer, but I do own several successful Minecraft servers. In 2011, I was introduced to Minecraft by a friend and fell in love with it. Even a few years after release, the game still has countless surprises and gameplay paths to offer, I, like so many others, thought to myself "I want to start my own server". But unlike many of the others, my idea was to turn the server into a way to make some extra cash. Was my plan to get rich? No. But I knew with my existing business experience, I would be able to turn it into something that I enjoy doing, while carrying itself at least and earning some extra money at best.

My motives for making money with my server were 2 fold:

1. To justify my time spent on a game to myself and my family.
2. Because of good old fashioned capitalism. (Who wouldn't want to make money?)

Thankfully, my ideas seemed to work, and I have used the strategies I detail in this book to build a nice income with my hobby Minecraft. I broke even on my 2nd month, and continued to grow, almost every month since I started. Last month my network did $1,955 in revenue, and I project next month to surpass $2,000.
