When Autumn Cooper flees to the safety of a rich superstar's compound, she never imagines that her abusive husband will follow her and exact his revenge. As she struggles to regain the confidence he stole from her, she learns valuable lessons about the human spirit. After the brutal attack of his sister, Hunter Lane is hired as head of security in order to protect the Cavender and Lane families. His strong sense of responsibility and unwavering loyalty are dwarfed by his love for family and desire to protect them. When Autumn becomes a member of their household, Hunter feels an even stronger desire stir within himself. Will those desires cloud his judgement and hamper his ability to safeguard those he holds most dear? Can Autumn overcome the nightmarish hell of her past to awaken to the possibilities of a glorious, new dawn?
