Bonny and Lauren face the greatest challenge of their lives as they try to rescue their man Daniel from an impossible predicament. His helicopter has crashed behind enemy lines, he is injured and cannot move. If the Argentine secret police get hold of him he will be tortured and may die. If they do nothing, he will surely die. They must act alone. They set out on an impulsive and dangerous mission to bring back the man whom they both love. Daniel is husband to Bonny and unknown to her, father to the baby she carries. Lauren too carries a secret that might threaten her relationship with Bonny, but she dare not reveal it; not until Daniel is safely home. All three face formidable challenges.
