How to Make $200-$300 a Day Painting Addresses: Start your own business for less than $100 this week Bob The Painter

How to Make $200-$300 a Day Painting Addresses is a step-by-step guidebook on how to make real cash daily by painting addresses on people's curbs. Painting addresses is a business that pays cash daily. If you need money "right now," you can try to get a loan or you can paint a few addresses and eat steak tonight at Morton's. This book is the distilled wisdom of generations of address painters. This is not an internet business or a get-rich-quick scheme. You have to get up every day and do the work; no one is going to do it for you. You have to put out advertisements and actually paint the addresses of people who say "yes" (fill out the order form). There is absolutely **no door-to-door selling** involved. All you have to do is post flyers on doors and come back the next day and paint the addresses of anyone who has filled in the form, but this is a business and that means that in order to make a profit you have to take it seriously. This book shows you how, without any hype and hyperbole. You will learn what flyers work better than others, and what flyers work best of all. You will learn how to post flyers to make a LOT more money than anyone else doing this business, even if you put your flyers up one month after they have. Some people do this business and fail, or they make very little money because they have never been trained how to do this properly. This book cuts through all of the crap and shows you how to make this a profitable venture. The secret is in knowing what to put on your flyer and how to tape it up so that you will get the orders. All of this is covered in detail. Additionally you will learn what kind of paint to use, how much it costs, and where to get it. Also, you will learn secrets on how to CONSISTENTLY get 10-30% off your supplies on a regular basis (buying locally, in small or large quantities) and even how to occasionally save up to, and over 50% on your flyers, paint, and other needed supplies. There is no magic to this. It entails knowing how to get the special discounts major corporations get and how to find and use the coupons, rebates, and rewards your suppliers offer but do not always advertise. All of these discounts, large and small, add to your bottom line profit and can make the difference between a ho-hum month and a great one financially. All of this is revealed because the author is retired and is NOT in competition with you. Painting addresses is one of those "unseen businesses" that very few people do and they make a LOT of money doing. This business won't make you a millionaire, but it can pay your bills very nicely and allow you the freedom of owning your own micro-business and never having to deal with jerk bosses, office politics, wearing a suit and tie, or being at the mercy of corporate downsizing. You can paint addresses in cities all across America and even do this business as a giant road trip. The best painters pay for their own vacations by bringing along the paint and stencils and work a few days in the area they are vacationing in. Moreover, "How to Make $200-$300 a Day Painting Addresses" explains WHY some people make $50-$300 a week while others make $200-$300 a day on average, and over $1,000 a week consistently; and how to do it. This book details out what kinds of flyers to use and gives you the exact wording that professionals are using right now, and have used recently to earn over $1,000 a week on a regular basis. This book can and should easily pay for itself the very first hour you go out and paint. This is a business with a high profit margin that you can start for less than $100 and be "in the black" (making profits) your first week. From there on it is simply a matter of not getting lazy or get lulled by the easy money. Whether you will make any money is up to you. You have to go out and do this--the book can only show you how.
