Talk of the Town Joan Smith

Daphne's visit to her Aunt Effie was allowed with much misgiving. Effie had once been the toast of London, her beauty attracting men of all kinds - husbands, sons, brothers, and fathers. But her first marriage had ended in a scandalous divorce and the notoriety forced her to flee. Now, Effie planned to publish her memoirs and half of London was turning pale with terror. Everyone wanted to buy her silence and suddenly she was being courted by the very people who had shunned her. As for Daphne, when she crossed swords with a certain young duke claiming she was blackmailing his family, she had no inkling of what was in store...
