Cindy is a young, fresh reporter, who has been thrust into a small-town story about the last thing on Earth she wants to cover - reports of werewolves.

Cindy has already met the rich and charming Robert Gray and learned his deepest secret. Cindy soon finds herself lost, slowly losing track of the thin line between what is real and what is not, and discovering all the shades of gray in a world she once saw only in blacks and whites.

Now, however, Cindy's boss is on her way to the little town, and she is about to find out about Cindy's little secret. Scared out of her mind, Cindy tries to come up with something to keep her away from Robert.

What if their secret becomes exposed? How can she manage to keep her beloved one safe from harm?
