Split/Vision John Wilbur

Split/Vision is John Wilbur's Vietnamese experience. A former U.S. Navy SEAL, he served eighteen months in Vietnam at the height of the war years (1967-68) where he fought and lived among the Vietnamese of the Mekong Delta that became like home. 32 years later he returns alone as a tourist. After a jarring start arriving at "Ho Chi Minh" City, he encounters a split-vision in discovering a new and different country while searching for the old. In his travels, Wilbur's narration reveals an internal journey that moves rhythmically between the now and then. Drawn back to the Mekong, he muses over its ancient river and rice culture, recalls the dark nights hunting for the VC along the great brown rivers, living through the TET Offensive, a fight to near death, promises broken, redemption and renewal among the irresistible humanity of a people torn by war and decades of oppression. The discovery of the North, the surprise of Hanoi, chance encounters and unusual coincidences create a vivid and vibrant montage. Delving into the nation's complex, social, cultural and political history, Wilbur's journey makes you understand the country's bitter past, struggling present and hopeful future.

Ramon Hudson:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Split/Vision can make you experience more interested to read.
