Every woman dreams of having a great man that works hard and loves even harder. Dimera thought she found her soul mate and better half in Anthony. At the beginning, he was so caring and loving. Soon, the façade fades and he becomes everything she doesn't want. She soon finds a way to leave him once she finds out about his infidelity and kids. It doesn't take long before he physically abuses her. Anthony is confident that Dimera will never leave him even with everything he puts her through.

Dimera's best friend, Roxie, never fails to let Dimera know that she deserves better every chance she gets. Roxie is a cool and straight forward woman that adores Dimera and only wants what's best for her friend. Dimera's thirst for love and being treated right lands her in the hands of Shun. Shun moved to Texas from the east coast, starting over and searching for love as well. Once he crosses Dimera's path with the help of Roxie, he does everything in his control to show her how a woman should be treated. Feelings and sparks between them grow fast just as Dimera is about to give up on love, but a turn of events threatens those plans once Anthony gets out of jail with plans on getting even with Dimera.

Will Dimera and Shun get their happily ever after? Or will Anthony rip them apart?
