It's Valentine's Day. Forget the chocolates and red roses. No more Hallmark cards. What working mothers really want is time... So starts Suki Porter's attempt at blogging in her quest to survive being a modern jack-of-all trades: a mother, wife, businesswoman and loyal girlfriend. But what starts off as a seemingly straightforward exercise, turns into a meditation on friendship, workplace politics, everyday violence and relationships. As she approaches her 40th birthday, her best friend, Carla, hands her a book which is being secretly passed and talked about amongst women. A book that will make her realize the significance of what she truly fears and deems important. What is the choice that Suki will make? This contemporary novel of self-discovery reveals the often messy reality of work-life balance and modern womanhood. Its what happens when Bridget Jones Diary meets Lean In.
