Los afectos (Spanish Edition) Rodrigo Hasbún

Los afectos aborda la paulatina desintegración de los Ertl, una peculiar familia de aventureros que, tras la derrota de Alemania en la Segunda Guerra Mundial, decidió exiliarse en Bolivia. Es en esas tierras extrañas donde el cabeza de familia, Hans Ertl, pretende alcanzar el gran sueño de Paitití, la ciudad perdida de los incas que se oculta en algún lugar inhóspito de la selva amazónica. Ni su mujer ni sus tres hijas saldrán indemnes de las inalcanzables quimeras y las ausencias de este padre explorador. Pero será Monika, la mayor y la más aventurera, la única que acabe heredando su carácter inconformista para lanzarse, con los años y en aras de sus convicciones, a un objetivo mucho más temerario.

Con el trasfondo movedizo de los cincuenta y los sesenta y en una Latinoamérica radicalizada, Rodrigo Hasbún mezcla la biografía, la ficción y los hechos históricos para asomarse a los vínculos y los afectos de esta familia inusual. Esta novela, trepidante y llena de belleza, pone de manifiesto lo lejos y lo cerca que se puede estar de aquellos a los que se está unido por unos apellidos y unos cuantos recuerdos. Mientras fuera del entorno familiar se desarrollaban las sucesivas aventuras, arqueológicas, ideológicas y políticas, en la intimidad se libraban otro tipo de batallas decisivas.

English Description

Affection deals with the gradual disintegration of the Ertls, a peculiar family of thrill-seekers who, after the defeat of Germany during World War II, decide to go into exile in Bolivia. It is in these strange lands where the head of the family, Hans Ertl, attempts to reach the great dream of Paitití, the lost city of the Incas that is supposedly hidden in some inhospitable corner of the Amazon jungle. Monika, his oldest and most adventurous child, is the only one who ends up inheriting his maverick character, over time launching herself toward an even riskier objective.
