The Farmer & The Belle (Baymoor Book 1) D. A. Young

Georgina Carlton is on the fast track road to success. She doesn't have time for distractions like relationships, family and love, because she's seen firsthand how they can complicate things. Unfortunately Max Hayes didn't get that memo. One look at the petite dynamo and he decides she's a complication worth having and keeping. So he erases the boundary lines when she's not looking and before Georgina knows it, she's falling in love with the gorgeous farmer and a town she thought she hated. Can she take a chance on him or will her dream and complicated past get in the way?

This is the first book in the Baymoor Series about the Carlton siblings who find love in the most unexpected places. Please be sure to check out the sneak preview of book 2 at the end!

WARNING: Must be 18+ to read. This book contains steamy/explicit love scenes and coarse language. It is not recommended for those who are easily offended. Please see author's notes inside of book.
