This book of poetry was written in order to empower millions of young women who can identify with the facts of life. In this life, there are many twists and turns, some are good, and others are meant to transform girls to women. No matter what women encounter in life, it is important for them to understand that God created them with a special purpose. Ladies, we have gained so many rights in society, however, there is still a group of girls who are crying out to civilization because they need a different outlet to express their feelings, ideas, and power to a different generation. Each poem can be read through difficult times or moments of joy. In other cases, this book of poetry can also be used as a song of petition to a loving creator. No matter what the needs are, please remember that as a girl you were created to become a lady, and as a lady you were meant to walk in the fulfillment of your Destiny. Lady Destiny I am!!!!!!!
