How to Protect Your Child Benefit Nick Braun

Child benefit is an extremely valuable tax-free gift from the Government to parents. Unfortunately, it is now being withdrawn from those who earn over £50,000. This guide explains how you can protect your child benefit payments by shifting income and expenses into other tax years, transferring income to your spouse or partner, claiming more tax reliefs and reshaping income so that it does not fall into the net. There are chapters with specific tax planning ideas for salary earners, landlords and property investors, company owners, sole traders and partnerships.
