A look into the "top two inches" of the fastest drivers on planet earth THE MINDSET OF A GRAND PRIX CHAMPION "A lot of people go through life doing things badly. Racing's important to men who do it well. When you're racing, it's life. Anything that happens before or after is just waiting." - Steve McQueen in the film 'Le Mans' (1971) "The car is an extension of your mind, when you're really hooked up" - The words of Martin Brundle, former F1 driver and Grand Prix commentator "A champion is not a title, but a set of qualities: Champions aren't made in the gym. Champions are made from something they have deep inside them - an inner flame that burns brightly...with dedication, purpose, desire and passion. True champions LIVE the dream, the vision of who and what they can one day become.... even a long time before it happens." - me This "work", a "true labour of love by a petrol-head" is a collection of Craig's articles on motor racing and the power of the mind to achieve peak performance... in sport and in life.
