The Alliance Jolina Petersheim

When Leora Ebersole sees the small plane crash in her Old Order Mennonite community, she has no idea it's a foreshadowing of things to come. Soon after the young pilot, Moses Hughes, regains consciousness, they realize his instruments were destroyed by the same power outage that killed the electricity at the community store, where Englischers are stranded with dead cell phones and cars that won't start.

Moses offers a sobering theory, but no one can know how drastically life is about to change. With the only self-sustaining food supply in the region, the pacifist community is forced to forge an alliance with the handful of stranded Englischers in an effort to protect not only their supplies but their very lives.

In the weeks that follow, Leora, Moses, and the community will be tested as never before, requiring them to make decisions they never thought possible. Whom will they help, and whom will they turn away? When the community receives news of a new threat, everyone must decide how far they're willing to go to protect their beliefs and way of life.

Debra Unger:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this The Alliance can make you feel more interested to read.
