In Pretoria, South Africa lived a family that had moved there from Abuja, Nigeria. They were very learned people so the maids that they had could not speak good English and this made them feel embarrassed bringing any learned friends into the house. They hired a corporate maid that was going to teach them good English and how to express themselves. Sasha was the name of the maid. The family included Mr and Mrs Richard's mother Alice together with the maids.

In the course of teaching, Sasha got involved with almost all members of that family from man of the house right to the male servants.
