AND Because We Love Our Readers – BONUS STORY INSIDE!!!

When a cheerful high school girl's life turns out to be a nightmare, when all the truths would be hidden and life became like a labyrinth and no one would be able to figure out who was the one saying the truth and who was using people's search for the truth as a shield to get rid of people, then life would turn out to be a horrible place where the only language that could be understood would be death and killing. Ariel was always the first to come out and protect her friend Brook. After Brook passed away in a fire, Ariel found out that her body no longer belongs to her. Brook's angry spirit and murdered soul came back to take revenge on the devil through the body of her best friend Ariel. Ariel started to see unbelievable things and she started seeing her friend jumping from the roof, again and again, at the beginning she thought she went insane but later she realized that she lost control over her body. A criminal psychologist working at schools Elijah entered the fray as the story takes place among high school students, uses her special powers and monstrous strength. And the genius criminal psychologist Elijah who became an expert in serial crimes planned his revenge on the man Oliver who helped his family's killer go.
