The face was of a man Emma Connor had hoped to never see again. The blood red ink that was slashed across the image and the cryptic message was foreboding but Emma didn't want to think about who sent it or why. Her life was doing work that she loved as a medical resident at UCSF Medical Center and living in what she considered the greatest city in the world, San Francisco. She soon discovers that death precedes each message and must enlist help if she is to save another's life. Mike O'Hanlon is one of the FBI's best agents and is on the hunt for a serial killer. When he meets Emma he is instantly attracted to the smart and sexy doctor. But to catch the killer he must delve into her painful past. To protect her he must fight the desire growing between them. In today's world of social media and Facebook it seems everyone is putting their thoughts, their feelings, and their lives out on display for anyone to see. In the hands of a killer a Facebook page becomes a weapon he uses to seek and destroy those who have hurt him. Will Mike and Emma be able to put the pieces together before he finds his next victim?
