'You told me that you are, what you call, a sorceress. But you never told me exactly what that means...'

Casey, a 28-year-old insurance claims adjustor, finds himself in Utah during a snow storm. He instantly – some would say magically – feels a connection with Veronica, the stunning proprietor of a local Bed and Breakfast. The mildest touch, even when they just shake hands, sets off sparks. But when they make love? That's when the real magic happens. The erotic sensations of their coupling are heightened as they hear each other's thoughts and feel each other's explosive desires. After their first time, their supernatural connection even extends outside of the bedroom. Veronica admits to being a sorceress. While Casey doesn't completely understand, what's going on, the two become inseparable. But magic has a downside too... can a relationship last when the most intimate of thoughts and feelings are no longer private? Especially when Veronica starts to keep secrets, and Casey starts fantasizing about his tantalizing boss, Rosalind? *A paranormal romance for mature audiences.
